NICHOLS STREET BRIDGE OKAY

Everything seems to have been straightened out, on the Nichols Street Bridge, with the abutments all happy. At least, that is the word that came, informally from the Cambridge Court House, Tuesday afternoon, after a hearing on the proposed land takings for the new right-of-way for the bridge. There were about twenty residents of the area at the hearing which began at 1:00 pm and was held in one of the empty court rooms.

After the hearing was half-way through, it became apparent that the people from Nichols Street, south of the Boston and Maine Railroad (the Shawsheen Avenue side) were alarmed at the proposal, in so far as it was taking their front lawns.

Some of them were new residents in the area. Some had no idea of what the maps presented meant. None of them had seen the maps before.

Their expressions and inquiries led the County Commissioners to vote a little more than is usual. In addition to just 'taking under advisement' the Commissioners voted that 'so the people can go to the Engineer's (town) office and find out what the layout does to them'.

But, after the hearing had been closed, at 1:32 pm, the people concerned were able to get explanations from County Engineer John Shaughnessey and Town Engineer Arthur Harding, and when they learned that the bridge had to be located where proposed, because of the new twenty-two foot clearance for Boston & Maine Trains, they seemed to be satisfied.

One more point that they brought up, at the post-hearing, was that they believed that a Stop Sign should be erected at the end of Nichols Street near Shawsheen Avenue. Rep Fred Cain, who was present, promised that one would be, and it was in place yesterday afternoon.

Prior to the close of the hearing Dave Hill of Nichols Street wanted to know if there was an alternate route - alongside the railroad from Lake Street, for instance, and Danny Del Papa wanted to know if the roadway could be, instead, from Grace Drive. It was indicative of the questions asked.

Town Engineer Arthur Harding told the Commissioners that previous studies by the Town had shown a roadway from Lake Street to be too expensive, and that it would have to cross one thousand feet of swamp.

The Town Manager, Sterling Morris, told the Commissioners that studies by the engineers showed that there was less property taking by using the proposed route.

The new route, which will have a bridge about 100 feet nearer the Lake Street Bridge than formerly will cost about $340,000, Rep Cain told the Commissioners. Cain's figures were for everything - land takings, engineering, and construction.

DAMAGES ARE WELL OVER ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS: At the Glen Road School, as the result of vandalism last Saturday. 41 windows were broken, and 16 plastic domes on the roof as well.

Town employees Charles Steeves and Richard Ely are replacing glass. The windows behind and above Ely have no panes of glass.

New High School?

School Board Meets Tonight

A meeting of the Wilmington School Committee, which may portend a new High School, off Glen Road, is to be held tonight in the library of the North Intermediate School.

The committee will listen to a report by researchers as to whether it is better to add to the present High School Building, or to use the present High School for an Intermediate School, and build a new High School.

The Board of Selectmen, and many other town officials, as well as interested citizens, are expected to attend.

Town Meeting Lasted Eight Minutes

It took only eight minutes for 361 voters to complete the Special Town Meeting, last night, in the Herbert C Barrows Auditorium. The meeting was called to order at 8:10 pm and was over at 8:18 pm.

There was no argument on the first two articles, and only a brief argument on the third - that of the Town Manager, who asking for $6,000 for a complete Job Description of the employees of the Town of Wilmington.

$100,000 was rescinded from the vote of the Annual Town Meeting for the Welfare Department, leaving $94,675.51 for the six months operation of this year. The Welfare Department becomes part of a State agency on July 1.

$50,264.67 was transferred from the Water Surplus Account to the Legal Settlements Account, to pay for the damages in the taking by eminent domain of the old gravel pit off Salem Street, for a Well Field for the Water Department. The money was adjudicated in a court suit, some time ago.

Article 3 saw Herbert Colby of Grace Drive, and John Imbimbo of Cottage Street arguing against the proposal. Colby told the Town Meeting that it was costing $75,000 to do a survey of the Melrose Hospital, with 300 employees, and Imbimbo told the Town Meeting that the last survey had not yet been implemented, and that the Massachusetts Federation of Taxpayers had all the figures, which were available to the Town.

Town Manager Sterling Morris told the voters that $1,500,000 is being spent in salaries, and that the work is needed to 'retain qualified and quality employees' - who should be compensated as they deserve to be.

The Moderator, Simon Cutter, declared a split vote as 'carried' and there were no questions from the Town Meeting floor.

NICHOLS STREET RESIDENTS: At the County Commissioners Hearing. They are seated to the right, and more were on the other side of the Court Room. Town Manager Sterling Morris is speaking. On the bench before Morris are Selectmen Miceli and Boylen, and Rep. Fred F. Cain.

Nosey Nancy

Send your announcements to Nancy, Box 208, Wilmington, or call 657-7141, or after five, 658-4865. If I'm not there, I'll call you.

Well, folks. Hold those cigarette packs please! Last week, Commander Al at the VFW in Tewksbury told the boys that was all that were needed, and we still haven't found out where they went, so with time and patience, they should be able to be followed, and some other kid must need help, even if this one has been paid for, so they tell me.

We met Higgle sporting her new blue uniform on the way to the Convention for the VFW this week and this was at the Statler in Town and sounded like a lot of good time. Now, we hear that she is due back at the DAV Convention on this week 27, 28, 29 at the Statler.

John Quigley, the Commandant of the Chelsea Soldiers Home will be the main speaker, with memorial services at Trinity Church in honor of Gen Douglas MacArthur. There will be a Military Ball in the Main Ballroom Friday night (Wonder if Higgle left her formal there! I'd be exhausted by next week, but with her seventy-odd years young, I'll just bet I'll meet her hopping her way to the Square or to Boston next week!)

On the Convention Committee is James Simpson for Resolution and Legislative; and James Shine for Constitutional Changes.

The friends of Mr and Mrs Matthew Kane, Jr. of Marcus Road are delighted to know that Christopher George, born Friday, April 12 at 7:20 am in the Malden Hospital came home on Tuesday, June 25th. Chris was a premy, born 2-1/2 months early, and weighed in at 2 lbs, 3 oz, losing to 1 lb 15 oz. Now he is a bouncing 5 lbs 3 oz. Congratulations to the proud parents, brother Danny and sister Allison, and the Nursery Staff at the Malden Hospital for doing such an amazingly wonderful job. Welcome home, Chris!

Jimmy Durant phoned and said he read in "Tell it to Joe" on June 24th that there was some kind of a hoax with the Cigarette Packs and the Seeing Eye Foundation and a Tea Foundation. We are trying to find out, and if this is so, this gal is going to be pretty mad on account of you all have been so great in responding to this kid's need. If you hear anything, please give me a call immediately!

Understand that the Crusaders did a tremendous job on Parade for the VFW in Boston. A birdie told me that Dave Walsh slipped and fell and cut his hand. But with the help of the Police Station First Aid and eleven stitches at the Boston City Hospital and a tetanus shot, Dave was back beating a Drum at the VFW CONVENTION the next day! With one hand! That's the spirit, Dave!

Troop 268 of the Girl Scouts caught that double header and it wasn't raining, so they didn't need their suits. However, they had a splash party and used them this week at Mrs Ruth Bowman's in her backyard pool on Fairmeadow Road.

The tots graduated at Millbrook Kindergarten this year on Friday June 21st, we hear. But haven't been able to catch up with any pictures as yet!

Young Wes Moore found a pair of black glasses in No Wilmington These were hornrimmed and they were found on the end of Arlene Avenue and will fit a large teenager or thin-faced man. If you have lost yours, please call Wes at 658-9796, and they'll be returned to you. Hear that Young Wes wears glasses himself so he knows the importance of same! same!

Mark it up again there, folks! The Human Rights Meeting is on Tuesday, July 9th at Jack Mettauer's House on Salem St. That gray and white garrison I thing just after Frederick Drive on the left from the Rt 62 end, and he's expecting a big bunch of people. We haven't seen the Kiwanis, the Rotary, the School Dept., the St Thomas or St Dorothy's representatives, Diamond Crystal, Avco, or Sweetheart Plastics, or a lot of other industries in this here community. This week we are really going after you fellas, so watch out, Joe Maffeo at the MCNB, Bob Stewart or Dick Forrest at the RSB, Les Stark at the RCB, and all of the rest of you. This gal is out to get you there!

Have had two or three donations of yarn this week...Thanks to you all who showed while this Chick was on the road...This has been some week...Haven't heard from Grant's though. Have you bought your blanket...Only have until the end of next week, and we do need that yarn kids! Remember, The $5 blanket, Aucella is matching with a skein of yarn to the Yarn Project. So, how about getting with it...Take inventory now and let's go! Thanks!

Don't forget that Grange has a Variety Show at the High School on Saturday night, June 29th at 8:00 pm, and on Sunday afternoon, June 30th, at 5:00 pm. The talent is local!

Girl Scout Troop 389 went on a camping weekend at Maude Eaton's in North Andover. Mrs Eileen Morrisette, Maureen Hughes, Marge Coulton and Lorraine Burt chaperoned. They were gone two days and were hostessed by Mrs Dorothy Wiberg. Everyone had a good time!

DID YOU KNOW THAT: Mr and Mrs Russell Elwell of 12 Shady Lane Drive are home from their Hawaiian vacation...Margie Ella is in the Choate Hospital in Woburn for an operation and wants to hear from you all with cards... Bill Cavanaugh thanks you all for his cards and good wishes. He had a good rest, is out and fine... Mike Schena is a lucky fellow... one automobile accident and one demolished car, but one shaken up boy, no more...Nice going, Mike!

Jackie Bowen is spending the summer in Wilmington and is back at the beach. Congratulations, Jack! Good to have you home, even if it's only until fall, and this gal will feel much better about the Clan swimming with you on the job!

The Kiwanis are having a cook-out at Paul Washburn's on Ballardvale St on July 1st...and at Art Spears on Burlington Avenue on July 8th! They want all members there!

And the Boys! Bob Madigan writes from 'Nam': 'Dear Nancy I've been in Vietnam now for two months and only recently got a few back issues of the Town Crier I'd like to thank you for the way you have supported us here in Nam. Sometimes it gets a little tiresome to pick up a paper or turn on a radio over here and hear about people yelling about the war.

Very few times do we ever hear about anybody ever stopping to think a minute then giving us some support. The guys here in my Hooch (billets) say that if a few more people voiced their support of their boys in Nam, then maybe we'd get out of here sooner. So I thank you very much. It's people like you, that we are fighting for here. Again thanks. It's much appreciated. And Hello from the 121st Signal Bn, Company A. Yours truly Sp/4 Robert Madigan, PS By the way, I'm a Wilmington Boy 604 Woburn St.

(And Bobby, that still goes. We are behind you fellas all the way... and heartbroken that the peace talks are so long and drawn out...)

but as long as you're there, we all here are right with you...Your address will be in next week and maybe a few others around here will let you know how much they think of you. I know, with my ear to the ground and 'Nosey' as I am, they really are...Take my word for it!

Dick Ness is finishing Basic: 'Dear Nancy, Well it won't be long now before I'm home with all my friends again. I graduate from basic training on July 5th. Come home on the 8th of July. So how is the old town of mine, any news of how Wilmington Crusaders are doing so far this year?

'Am sorry to hear that the town lost the Grange Hall, and I hope that when and if they catch the person that lit the fire, they get their just punishment...Keep up the good work for the town. See you all soon. Richard Ness Jr

And mark this...The grapevine tells me that all of the Town Committees have been invited to the School Committee Meeting on Thursday (which is an open meeting, by the way) at the North Intermediate School, and it's about to cost the Town $9,000,000 -- that's right, nine million dollars (Could it be shades of a new high school?)

This is tonight there, folks!

St Thomas on the Spot

The largest group of parishioners in the town, members of St Thomas are on the spot.

Men and women of the Wilmington Baptist Church, who have been such an inspiration to all other denominations by their cooperation and self-labor in doing so much to maintain the upkeep of their new church are a silent challenge to St Thomas Parishioners.

The rectory is in need of a paint job, and Saturday, June 29th has been the day chosen -- from early morning till sunset, men and women will attempt to meet the challenge--if it is not met, there are sure to be redder faces than ever, and one is sure to be Father Mackin's. He seems to think that the men and women will, in tribute to Father Croke, their beloved Pastor, complete the job! Good luck to St Thomas men and women!

Selectmen's Meeting

Twelve abutters appeared at the Selectmen's Meeting Monday night to find out about locations of new telephone posts on the Nichols St. Bridge. Frederick Reese, representing the telephone company, appeared with plans for the new bridge, which none of the abutters nor the Selectmen had seen previously. Mr. Reese informed the Selectmen that he had obtained the copy from the County Commissioners particularly for the hearing.

There was much discussion about the guy wires for posts and relocations in driveways etc.

Reese said that the telephone company would be locating the poles on the lot lines as nearly as possible, if the plan went through which they wouldn't know about until the hearing at the County Commissioners Office on Tuesday to which the Board and the abutters had been invited. Mrs. Fuller of Nichols Street was worried because everyone had told her the taking was being made on her property adjacent to the bridge in order to install the new bridge, but she had not been notified, although she had had 'the surveyors for six months'.

the Wilmington Bridge was for Shawsheen Avenue, that Nichols Street would be $40,000 from the County, and $40,000 from the Town with the state picking up the balance. The Nichols Street Bridge is scheduled for September, and Miceli said 'Just before election'. A motion was made that the TM pursue the Shawsheen Avenue Bridge with Rep. Cain.

Mrs. Lillian Woodside will represent the Selectmen and Mr Woodside the Wilmington Hospital Group at the meeting on Wednesday, the 26th at 7:30 pm, at the Winchester Hospital. Mrs Woodside was appointed, since this is the evening for the Special Town Meeting, and Miceli said they would have 'good representation'. This meeting is for discussion of development of a Regional Medical Service Area in Winchester.

A reminder was made that appointments should be made to fill expiring terms between July 15 and Aug 15.

A discussion on the flashing signals at Woburn and Lowell Sts was held and the TM said that the flasher had gone and LeBaron hadn't been able to replace it yet. A policeman will be sta-

NICHOLS STREET RESIDENTS: At the Selectmen's Hearing, examining plans.

At 9:00 pm, a hearing was held on the Shell Oil Company at the junction of Main and Lowell Sts. for an increase of 4000 gallons in the underground storage tank for the gasoline. No abutters being present, and with a memorandum from the Building Inspector, saying that he had no control under the Building By-Laws on underground storage, and Banda questioning this, a motion was made and it was voted that the permit should be granted.

Other Business

An application for a junk license was denied to George Sola on the advice of the Building Inspector in that it was for a residential area.

Lloyd Bender of Salem Street was granted a renewal of an auctioneer's license.

A permit was granted to Temple Shalom for a Carnival which it held on June 19th, with the fee waived.

An application for purchase of Lot 81 on Map 70, on Salem St. by an abutter was considered with an $800 assessed value named by the assessor. This will be voted on after an opinion has been rendered by the Conservation Commission and the Planning Board.

Town Manager Sterling Morris answered a questionnaire from the Massachusetts Selectmens Assoc. An application was considered from Daniel K Downey of 128 Grove Avenue on the incorporation of the Light Liners in Newbury, but a memo from Police Chief Lynch stated that Downey did not want his name involved and Banda motioned that the Secretary of State be notified accordingly.

A communication from the Dept of Public Welfare for the Commonwealth asked for an appointment to the Community Service Board. Maurice (Dice) O'Neil was unanimously appointed.

TM Morris said that the Department of Public Works Chapter 90 Maintenance funds would be going on Shawsheen Avenue.

A letter from Representative Cain said that the $150,000 named by the County Commissioners for tioned there until the unit is replaced.

A letter from Fred J. Conway and George Murray was addressed to the Board questioning a decision of the Board of Appeals. Miceli said to invite them in, but see that Town Counsel Alan Altman was present at the same time. Banda said it was not 'in our jurisdiction, and we shouldn't become involved.' Jim Miceli replied (with a twinkle in his eye) 'we might have a bargaining point'.

The TM was instructed to see why there was no action on the Benevento matter which company is operating without a license.

New Business

Miceli said he had called Cain, who was not in about the Stadium being rammed through the House with the new formula assessment for the MBTA District to pick up the deficit, if it was located in Boston. The vote was made on Monday in the House. Letters will be written to the Representatives, Senators, and the Governor saying that the Board is against this bill.

Chairman George Boylen asked if they would be willing to poll an opinion at the Town Meeting on rezoning the Crnr of Ballardvale and 125 to Industrial wiping out permission for the stadium.

Speeding on Grove Avenue was brought up. The Police will check and a policeman stationed at the Grove Avenue location for the summer.

Banda asked for information on Olson Road through the Rotary Park. TM Morris said that there had to be a landtaking and it had to go to Town Meeting. The Board asked for the Engineer to lay it out. Also, the owner will be instructed to clean up the lot in Middlesex Avenue.

Banda also pointed out that he hoped the people would pay attention to the Special Town Meeting and that it was worth '$1.00 per minute'.

The regular meeting was adjourned at 9:30 pm and the board went into Executive Session with Julius Gordon. The next meeting is scheduled for July 8th.

Planning Board

William Hanlon of 9 Sprucewood Road is the latest addition to the Wilmington Planning Board. Mr. Hanlon attended the meeting Tuesday evening, as an observer, and was sworn in on Wednesday.

Mr. Hanlon has been appointed by TM Sterling Morris to take the place of Emil Berger, the former secretary, who has resigned to devote more time to the Wilmington Family Counseling Service.

The new member is a Supervisor for the Corning Glass Company, and has been active in the Youth Center, at St. Thomas.

The Board spent nearly one and a half hours in discussion of Hansen Road with the developer and three of the residents of the area. The discussion ended amicably, and the road will probably be completed within a week. The developer is to give pipe to two of the residents, for a drain. It is impossible to use machinery because of the lawns, but he will assist with advice, etc.

Town Engineer Arthur Harding told the board that it is impossible to 'pipe' all brooks. He was in favor of installing 100 feet, which has already been done. The agreement is for nearly 150 feet, with a 'bend' in the pipe line, for which a 'manhole' will have to be constructed.

The board approved of the sale by the Selectmen of a lot of land on Salem Street (Lot 91), to an abutting landowner, with the provision that the lot become a part of the abutting lot.

A plan of land along Sheldon Avenue occupied a lot of discussion time. The plan is for the Land Court, but the problem was in the zoning by-law. The board agreed finally to discuss it later.

Mrs. McKie and Mr. Gillis reported that they had been talking with a North Wilmington resident about the possibility of purchasing a part of the abandoned track of the old Salem & Lowell Railroad, as a part of an 'Open Space' program.

Town Engineer Harding reported that the Conservation Commission had received an approval from the State Department of Natural Resources, for the purchase of four lots of land east of Hathaway Acres, voted to be purchased by the town at the annual town meeting. The land is to be devoted to conservation purposes.

Mrs. McKie reported on a meeting last Thursday of the Metropolitan Area Planning Council, in Brookline. She has been appointed to the Budget Committee of the MAPC.

She read a letter from Professor Elliott, Planning Advisor, with reference to a recent dispute with another board. The letter said that a member of the Planning Board, as an individual, or as a member, should call attention to any zoning law violations.

She also requested that a Progress Report be furnished, on the work of the Soil Survey, now going on in Wilmington.

The lady said she would like to invite more than just the Board of Selectmen to the meeting in which the long awaited Federal 701 program is to be initiated. She was even hoping to issue an invitation to the general public.

Bill Stickney argued against this, saying that if anything 'meaningful' were to evolve, it would come from a discussion of a smaller group.

New Business

Under New Business Mr. Stickney argued that the Planning Board and not individuals who are residents or otherwise, should be the ones to discuss subdivisions with the various land developers. He believed the board had set a 'dangerous precedent' in the past year. 'We have bent over backwards, but I think it was wrong'. 'We invite a lot of work for ourselves'.

Danny Gillis agreed that the point was well taken, and that all business of the developer should be conducted with the Planning Board.

Gillis held that one of the reasons for the difficulties between the Planning Board and the Board of Selectmen was that individuals would go from one board to another, and this would 'get the two boards fighting'.

Stickney: Right. We have to recognize that the Board of Selectmen is political, and I say that without malice. If a delegation comes to us with a grievance about water on private lots, that is not our responsibility. If they come to us with a grievance about water in the streets, that is our responsibility. It is then up to us, alone, to discuss it with the developer.

Gillis commented that a report of a meeting for Region 5A of the Massachusetts Federation of Planning Boards (to which Wilmington belongs) was supposed to have been scheduled for June 27th, but that the Wilmington Planning Board had not received any notice. He discussed it with Mrs. McKie, who said that they had not received other notices as well, from the Mass Federation.

The plan for Allen Park, off Parker Street, a new development by the Jackson Brothers, was signed by the board.

LITTLE LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK

Bob Cheney pitched and hit his team to a 7-3 victory over the front running Indians, by striking out nine, and hitting two doubles and a grand slam home run, Wednesday evening.

Yankee shortstop Roy Myer and First Baseman Peter O'Rourke came up with a stunning triple play, as Yankee Iron Man Pitcher Jeff Willet pitched shut out ball over the White Sox. John Gillis drove in the winning run, and Roy Meyer discounted for 2 insurance runs in the 3-0 victory Thursday evening.

Iron Man Willett, the Yankee pitching ace, won another game on Sunday, the 16th of June, helped along by a timely triple with bases loaded, to provide the winning margin in a 6-5 win over the Orioles.

Steve Silva, pitching his first game this year, fashioned a four hit shut out over the Red Sox, moving the Indians back to first place in the major league. He struck out 14 and contributed 2 hits to pace the Indians' win.

Falcons Pitcher Paul Dineen threw a smooth one hitter, to down the Owls 5-0 in a thriller, Saturday.

Dear Larz:

May I, through the columns of your newspaper, publicly thank the many churches, organizations, Scout Troops, Camp Fire Girls, and all the real goodhearted sincere people for their most generous response to the Daly Family, on Boutwell St., whose home was destroyed by fire?

It was most gratifying during these troubled times to see so many people forget their own problems, and regardless of race, color or creed generously aid this mother and fourteen children in distress.

The Daly Family is now located in a nine room home, opposite their former home, with plenty of clothing and quite a selection of furniture, household supplies, and toys.

Only Wilmington people could be so wonderful!

My sincere thanks.

Dear Larz:

Your editorial about Rapid Transit north of Boston does make sense. However, a station near 129 & 93 would not be completely foolish, if operated in conjunction with a station near Routes 93 and 495.

Most of the people who would use the Route 129 station would drive in from nearby, and would use Route 93 Southbound to connect with Route 128. This would not load Route 93 Northbound very much. People who wanted to travel further out could get off at 495, and take 495 East or West, or 93 North.

Having a station out by 495 does make the best long term sense, but an interim station, closer in toward Route 128 is not too bad an idea, if planned properly. (Perhaps near Route 128 in Reading?)

Robert A Pease.

Dads Won, Mothers Lost, & Yankees in Second Place

By Louis

The idea of transplanting entire organs has long fascinated physicians.

Among the many difficulties involved, the most serious has been -- and still is -- a mysterious phenomenon called 'rejection.'

It was first recognized by a brilliant young Frenchman, Dr. Alexis Carrel, and by Dr. Charles C. Guthrie of the University of Chicago, who teamed up in 1904 to perform a series of transplant experiments with animals.

These two researchers knew that there was nothing wrong with their surgical techniques. However, their animals would die two or three weeks after the transplants.

They realized that some unknown biological factor caused the body of the host to reject and destroy any foreign organ. But, they never did come up with the answer to this mystery.

Success with the aid of miracle drugs has come about in transplants. The latest drugs developed are in stock at SILVER LAKE PHARMACY 52 Main Street, Tel 658-4617.

Sunday, June 23 was The Day for the Little Leaguers.

Two teams battled it out for second place.

The Little League Minors All Stars defeated (?) the Little League Mothers, 9 to 3.

The Little League Majors All Stars lost (?) to the Little League Fathers, 7-6.

It was a Day to Remember.

The Yankees and Tigers, tied for second place, started the ball rolling at 1:30 pm with a thrilling game.

The Tigers jumped off with a two run lead in the first inning, as Mike Sugrue singled 2 runs across. Things continued at 2-0 for the Tigers until the last of the fifth, when Yankee shortstop doubled with the bases loaded, to tie the score.

Right fielder Jimmy Stewart, playing his first full game for the Yankees, made some neat catches to help pitcher Jeff Willet, in the Tiger 5th.

In the Yankee sixth, with two men on, John Gillis singled in the winning run, and then Jim Spinney connected with his second double to the day, driving in three more insurance runs, to give the Yankees sole possession of the Second Place, and Jeff Willet his fifth win of the season, in a 6-2 game.

Tiger first baseman Simmons starred for the losers, with three hits in four times at bat.

The Mothers Game

After that thriller the Minor League All Stars took the field against a 'well stacked' ball club coached by a very happy Ken Wolley.

The girls looked pretty good in the field, pretty good at bat, in fact pretty good everywhere, but their charms didn't seem to have any effect on the gum chewers of the Minor Leagues.

Craig Webster disregarded the charms of the lady's pitcher, Joan Foster, that he hit a grand slam home run.

The ladies did manage to come home with three runs, but it wasn't enough to top the All Stars 8.

Dad's Team

The final game was played between the Major League All Stars and a well rounded club of misfits called the 'Little League Fathers'.

The Fathers proudly took the field, bowing to all, and stretching long unused muscles, by picking up dropped balls, etc. - very sure of themselves.

Their complacency was immediately shaken by All Star third baseman John Harrison, who hit a home run of Charlie Nickerson's fancy pitching.

The Fathers trilled through the entire game. The Little Leaguers just kept on pushing more runs across.

Then Father's Coach Jim Tildesley gave a pep talk to his team. He paced up and down, shook his fist heavenwards, shuffled the line up, promised cigars, cried a bit, and it did the trick.

LITTLE LEAGUE TIGERS: Who played against the Yankees Sunday, and lost.
 Rear: John Harrison, Pat Simmons, Jimmy Busby, Mike Sugrue, Mike O'Brien and Bob Butters.

In the fifth the Fathers revived. A few eked out some hits. Fancy base running by Joe Bulger, Eddie Harrison, Arthur Sugrue, and Brad Case, along with some strike-outs by Frank Sierrazza, and the Fathers came alive.

They finally pulled the game-out, (along with some back and leg muscles, no doubt). The fitting climax was a picture to remember.

There was Jim Tildesley, lying face down on the base path, the victim of a run-down by Roy Meyer and John Harrison of the All Stars. It was a 7-6 victory for the Fathers.

Cokes were served 'on the house' to the All Stars, and Sloans Liniment and Oxygen were immediately available to the Dads.

In the drawings for the winner of the League Raffle. Well, that's another story.

President Frank Sierrazza was handed the winner's name, and he had the embarrassing privilege of announcing that his daughter Sandra had won the set. Almost immediately there were rumors of a conflict of interest, circulating among the crowd.

Mrs Edith Ross won a lovely radio, and happy Harold Wolley took home a miniature transistor radio.

As had been announced previously, all the donations from the crowd of spectators, $33.00, went to the Jimmy Fund.

All the people of Wilmington Little League are thanking 'Mr and Mrs Little League' - Dot and Larry Noel.

They have given unstintingly of their time in the past four years, managing the concession stand and keeping the grounds in shape. Their dedication is sincerely appreciated

WHAT A PITCHER - WHAT FORM! Joan Foster was quite an able lady on the mound.

JIMMY STEWART HAD QUITE A DAY: It was his first full day of play on the Yankee Team. Nine years old, he is shown crossing the plate, with the winning run, batted in by John Gillis.

SIX OUTFIELDERS - COUNT THEM - SIX: And several more were not in the photograph. Picture taken while the Mothers were on the field, in the fifth inning of the Mothers Game. Nearest to the camera is Jean Surette, playing Right Right Field.

A Fifth Year Reunion

The High School Class of 1963

Remember the High School Class of 1963?

Those were the boys who were perhaps the most athletically inclined, in Wilmington High School in a dozen years.

The baseball team went on to the Co-Championship (State), and the football team broke the winning streaks of the two top teams in Massachusetts, way back in 1962 - Lynnfield and Chelmsford. Jack Bowen and Dick Allard were the big names, but it was the team that did it - and the team work.

Peggy Carbone, now Mrs. Peggy Card, the class secretary, organized a get-together, and class reunion, last Saturday, at the Hillview Country Club. She succeeded in getting about fifty of the old class together, along with a real surprise, Vincent Gallucci, former Wilmington High teacher, and the Class Advisor for four years.

Peggy printed up a booklet with a short biography of each of the class members she was able to reach, and had a statement in the book from the old Class President, Dicky Allard.

It was a wonderful get-together, with roast turkey and all the fixings and dancing afterwards.

And the class decided to have a tenth reunion, five years from now.

The Cops Are Envious

The hero of this story shall not be named. He is a local boy, and he wanted to be a policeman - badly wanted to be.

He owned a car, but didn't have enough money to pay for the registration. Well - a policeman driving a car - who would stop it?

Maybe that was the reason, your scribe knows not. But he did want to be a policeman, and he did want to drive a car.

It was three or four weeks ago, that our hero came to the attention of the Wilmington Police Department. It was on a Saturday afternoon, while Jack Quinn and friends had his Drainage Project in full force.

One of the volunteers in the drainage force was Rod Laughton of Adams Street. He was out every Saturday, doing his part. Rod happens to have something wrong with his heart - and although he doesn't seem to worry, Mrs. Laughton does. So when Mrs. Laughton heard a crash near the garage door, for their cellar garage, she popped her head out the window for a look.

No - it wasn't Rod. It was a complete stranger. He looked up at her, and she looked at him, and he jumped out of the car and dove into the woods in back of the Laughton home.

Dove is the right word, for those woods are more swamp than anything else. It is impossible to go anywhere in those woods without crossing the old Mill Brook, and in some places Mill Brook is too thick to swim in, but too thin to walk on, as the saying goes.

Mrs. Laughton called the police, and in nothing flat a cruiser was at her home. A radio call to the police station, and the police were being deployed on the other side of that swamp - Belmont Avenue and other nearby streets. Shortly a bedraggled 'subject' was being 'collared' by Officer Fred Ward. He was dripping wet.

Meanwhile, back at the Laughton home, the police were searching the car, to find the owner. It was unregistered, but there were some interesting documents.

In the glove compartment was a receipt for a full Police Uniform complete with a Special Police badge, and two sets of the WPD devices that go on the shirt collar.

There was more too. There was a set of regulation handcuffs, for instance. It was quite interesting.

It was really something. The 'subject' not only had a complete uniform, complete with truncheon, but he had something that no Wilmington policeman has - Sapper Gloves.

Sapper Gloves are made of leather, and are made to look like a set of dress gloves - but in the knuckles part of the fingers are pieces of lead, neatly fashioned. When a person is hit by someone wearing Sapper Gloves, he generally doesn't protest. He just goes to sleep.

There was a subsequent appearance in court, and the young fellow was put on probation. That sounds like the end of the story, doesn't it?

It isn't. The Wilmington cops are still envious.

'That fellow' they say, 'had more equipment than the town gives us!'

FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

Mrs Elwood E Gaskill, Mrs Alexander Goldsworthy, Mrs Frederick L Worby, Mrs John Hayward, Mrs Robert Michelson, Mrs Walter Bennett of the Wilmington Women's Club attended the 77th annual convention which was held June 9-14 in Boston, Mass., at the Statler-Hilton. Mrs E D Pearce presided.

A large group of delegates from the clubs in other countries were entertained at an International Fiesta. Mrs William C Britt, recently chosen 'Military Wife of the Year' was a special guest at the affair.

We'll continue our one-way discussion of the dilemma in kid's baseball in Wilmington with a brief review.

You will recall that we found Little League to be a culprit, encouraging youngsters to play ball only when supervised and to wrongly swing from the heels for those cursed fences. We also discussed the calibre of ball in Pony League and the large number of boys that the league doesn't have room for.

A Babe Ruth League would give those boys a chance to play but would dilute the competition considerably. Now for a solution.

1. Eliminate Little League, that is Wilmington should disassociate itself the National Little League organization. The only loss ensuing would be no involvement in area post-season playoffs. Big Deal!

Further, the fence should be moved back so far that the coach couldn't even reach it with a golf ball and a fungo.

2. Combine the forces of the Mavericks and the Wildcats to form one extra-good team in the Suburban Pony League.

3. Introduce and implement a new system wherein boys will play against others of similar grade standing in school, rather than the existing program by age.

For example: kids about to enter the 5th and 6th grades would play in one division on a little league size diamond (60 foot bases and a 40 foot mound); boys going into the 7th and 8th grades in another division playing on an infield with 75 foot bases and a 50 foot mound; 9th and 10th graders playing together on a regulation diamond just as they would in school; finally those entering their junior and senior years in a fourth division.

Exceptions to the rule would involve boys who would be physically overwhelming in their division (i.e. a Mark Peters). A vote of the coaches could promote such an unusual case to a higher classification.

These teams would be garbed in caps and jerseys, saving sponsors' money for umpiring fees and field maintenance. Each team would play twice weekly including weekends, for 18 weeks, making a tremendous 36 game schedule.

I recommend these changes for reasons, many of which are quite obvious, and others including: (1) encouraging youngsters to do well in school, so as to move along in divisions with their classmates; (2) giving the older fellows a reason to stay in school, should they be contemplating dropping out; (3) always playing against boys your size (excepting runts of course) and skill on fields proportioned for your size; and (4) the better players will progress more easily to pony and high school ball.

UNRESERVED

When is sportsman Peter Fuller going into politics?...Wilt Chamberlain wants a raise and a piece of the club; he's going to be the next coach; he's going to have Chet Walker traded; he's going to be traded himself. It doesn't make any difference what you believe, one thing you can be sure of is that the dynasty people predicted for the 76ers a year ago just doesn't look too dynastic.

All systems are go for the installation of the lights at the Town Park. Why Darrell Brandon and not Galen Cisco?...Kevin Field turned in another brilliant hill performance for the Wakefield Merchants last week when he no-hit North Ford in an Inter-City League game. Another ex-Tradesman Jeff Williamson (Miami) is frustrating Florida State League batters with his great curve to the tune of 1.29 era, 3rd best in Class A.

The Legion nudged National Poly from the ranks of the unbeaten last week and took over sole possession of first place in the Town Softball League with an 8-3 win behind Jim Murray...Jack Pellerin's Legionnaires clash with Danny Bemis' Rocco's Club Friday night in another battle for the top spot. (The bookies are giving odds of 20 to 19-1/2 in favor of Jack's stacked deck)...Butch McFeeters capped off his best week of the year with a 2 hit win over A&E of Wakefield. The curvballing rightlander gave up three unearned runs in the first inning but after rightfielder Tom Beaton knocked in the tie-breaker in the second Surety was never headed.

Wildcat Tom Mirasola singled after two were out in the last of the seventh, promptly stole the second, took third on a wild throw and scored the winning run on a wild pitch. Mike Esposito got the 5-4 win, pitching to only one batter in relief of Bobby Gray...Not to be monotonous, but that McFeeters fella pitched Surety to another win Tuesday night 8-3, after hauling in a 5 pound 2 ounce bass in Amesbury between starts.

There is but one week left to enter a team in the Wilmington Flag Football League...The time will never be better for the Sox to trade for one of the White Sox Pitchers. Joe Foy will have to be the main bait, because he just won't produce for Williams and Stanky badly needs a third sucker. There's no help in sight down on the farm. The more promising young arms are a couple of years away with the possible exception of Ken Brett if he stays healthy. There just aren't any hitters ready to move up. Billy Conig is the Eastern League's All Star center fielder, but is hitting only .268. Jerry Moses hailed as successor to Ellie Howard is smashing the apple about at a powerful .211 clip. So TRADE already!

FROM THE POLLBOOTH

Well we're heading toward national convention time, fellow voters. You know that's where all TV networks give full coverage all day and night every day as a handful of bleary-eyed delegates make up your mind for you.

Gadzooks, why can't we dispense with this nonsense of whittling down the field to a candidate from each party who then has to compromise his principles for the sake of the party's platform.

Let all of the serious candidates run all the way to the end of the baby-kissing trail in November with all their names on the ballot and all of their own promises on their lips.

Why should a Wallace man like myself have to choose between Nixon or Humphrey. Why should ardent McCarthy, Rocky, Stokely, and Reagan people be forced to abandon their favorites for a second choice. We've got hawks, We've got hawks, and conservatives, phonies opportunists, and racists, and super-has-beens all running this year. Let the real people vote for their choice.

Chief Lynch says:

'Bring 'Em Back

Alive!'

As the fourth of July holiday weekend approaches, there's no need for you to miss out on a vacation motor trip because you're upset by the dire predictions of traffic accidents and deaths.

The American Automobile Association has the right idea in its new campaign with the slogan - 'Bring 'em Back Alive!'. That slogan was made famous by big game hunter Frank Buck, and now it is being used to encourage more and safer auto travel.

When you go on a vacation trip take common sense along with you. Enjoy your vacation. Drive carefully and return home safe and happy.

Here are some tips for enjoyable--and safe--motoring: Keep your car in safe condition. Plan your route in advance. Keep your seat belts buckled - all the time. Change drivers often. Let everyone enjoy the sights. Be alert on familiar roads, where most accidents happen. Know the safe driving rules, and obey them. Be extra cautious during the first few minutes of a rain storm, when the roads are most slippery.

I join with the AAA on wishing a pleasant trip to you and your family and 'Bring'em back Alive!'
